GUNS THUNDER ADMITS BLOWING RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR AND HIS STAFF HAVE LEFT CONSTANTINOPLE

The Prediction Is Made That Turkey's Declaration Of War On England and France Will Follow That on Russie, But Advices Indicate She Hopes to Confine War to Russia.

WITH THE SEVERING OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BE-TWEEN THE TRIPLE ENTENTE AND THE PORTE, THE AMERICAN EMBASSY WILL TAKE CHARGE OF BRITISH AND FRENCH INTERESTS

The American ambassador has not advised Washington of the declaration of war, but officials tonight thought his message either had been delayed or that he was awaiting formal notification by the Ottoman government.

The private message, addressed to a New York business man, was dated 5 p. m. yesterday and frenched here a few minutes after a lengthy dispatch from Ambassador Morgenthau déscribing events in Constantinopie up to noon yesterday.

ing events in Constantinopie up to noon yesterday.

Mr. Morgentrau said that early yesterday the Russian ambassador received instructions to demand his passports as the result of the Turkish bombardment of Russian scappets. The Mussian employ to see the drand Virter but failed. During the motuling, however, the Turkish minister of finance called on the French ambassador, informing him the bombardment had occurred without the previous knowledge of the Ottoman government. He blamed German officers in the Turkish navy. This explanation did not alter the purpose of the Russian ambassador to leave and the French and British ambassadors made preparations to leave Constantinople

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—War has been declared at Constantinople between Turkey and Russia, according to a private message transmitted today through the courtesy of the American embassy.

The American ambassador has not advised Washington of the declaration of war, but officials tonight thought his message either had been delayed or that he was awaiting formal hott-fication by the Ottoman government.

Advices received here under date Thursday indicated that Turkey still hoped to confine her belligerency to war with Russia:

war with Russia:

The government received no word today as to the probable attitude of Roumania and Bulgaria. A belated message under date of September 29, from Solia, however, spoke of a speech by the King proclaiming Bulgaria's intention to remain neutral.

On the authority of a prominent diplomat it was learned today. A Plinten Bay, the Turkish amendator, before his departure from wasnington weeks ago, told a prominent peace advocate that Turkey would join Germany within a month, attacking Russia on the Caucasian frontier and Great Britain in Egyp.
